St. James's, October 30.

THIS being the Anniverſary of the King's Birth-day, at Noon the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.

Naples, Oct. 13. The Court is ſtill at Portici, where the King, Queen, and all the Royal Family continue in perfect Health. On Wedneſday laſt we received Advice, that one of our armed Chebecks, named the St. Anthony, had taken a Tuneſine Corſair on the 2d Inſtant, off Cape Spartivento, after a ſmart Engagement, which laſted four Hours; and that the Crew, conſiſting of 84 Men, were made Priſoners, except 11, who had found Means to eſcape in their Boat. The ſame Advices inform us, that thoſe Corſairs have lately made themſelves Maſters of two of our Tartanes. A few Days ago, a young Nobleman, Son of the Prince of Arragon, who is an Enſign in the Italian Guards, being on Duty at the Palace, had ſome very high Words with a Swiſs Officer who was then on Duty with him; and as ſoon as the Guards were relieved, they withdrew to a Plain a little Diſtance from this City, where a Duel enſued, in which the Swiſs Officer was wounded. The King having been informed of this Affair, and of all the Circumſtances attending it, has ordered both the young Prince and the Swiſs Officer into Cuſtody. His Majeſty has obtained Leave of the Pope to oblige the Clergy to raiſe a ſufficient Sum of Money to enable him to fit out ſeveral Frigats, Gallies, Chebecks and Tartanes, in order to cruize upon the Corſairs of Barbary, who are continually interrupting the Commerce of this Country. The Duke de Girifalto, who retired ſome Time ago to his Eſtate in Calabria, has been arreſted and ſent Priſoner to the Caſtle of Cotron, for having greatly abuſed the King's Officers who were ſent thither to ſettle the Taxes. Don Colonna, Brother to the Prince of Stigliano, who has been for ſome Time paſt in Exile in the Iſland of Iſchia, on Occaſion of his clandeſtine Marriage, has obtained Leave to return hither.

Rome, Oct. 17. On the 15th Inſtant Cardinal Bardi, who was lately appointed Legate of Ferrara, took Leave of the Pope, and will ſet out To-morrow for his Legation. On Thurſday laſt, being the Feaſt of St. Thereſa, whoſe Name the Empreſs Queen of Hungary bears, Cardinal Mellini, her Imperial Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary, received on that Occaſion the Compliments of divers Cardinals and other Perſons of the firſt Diſtinction in this City, to whom he gave a magnificent Entertainment. M. Solari, Ambaſſador from the Grand Maſter of Malta to this Court, who has been for ſome Time at Turin, has defired Leave to be recalled, on Account of his ill State of Health; and as 'tis not doubted but that his Requeſt will be granted, he has already ſent Orders hither to have Part of his Effects diſpoſed of, and the reſt ſent to Turin, except his magnificent Coaches in which he intended to make his publick Entry into this City, which he has ordered to be left here for the Uſe of the Ambaſſador who ſhall be appointed in his Room by the Grand Maſter. A few Days ago Cardinal Rezzonico had a private Audience of the Pope; ſince which he has had ſeveral long Conferences with the Secretary of State, in order to find out Means for amicably adjuſting the Affair of the Patriarchiate of Aquileja; the Reſult of which he has ſent by two Expreſſes to Venice. M. Leſcari, who has been here ſome Time from Poland, is ſet out on his Return to that Kingdom; at his Departure the Pope preſented him with a magnificent Gold Snuff-Box, and 200 Sequins.

Genoa, Oct. 17. The Maſter of a Venetian Pink, juſt arrived, ſays, that on the 7th Inſtant he met a Barbary Corſair, with two Neapolitan Tartanes which ſhe had taken on the Coaſt of Sicily; but that the Crews of both had made their Eſcape on Shore. The four Galliots of this Republick are returned into Port from a Cruize of two Months in the Sardinian and Corſican Seas, without having met with any Corſair; though, by the Maſter of a French Tartane arrived here from Tunis we learn, that they were fitting out there no leſs than four Chebecks and five Galliots to cruize on the Veſſels of the Chriſtian Powers, which he ſays were almoſt ready to put to Sea.

Turin, Oct. 20. The Court continues at the Venerie, from whence we learn, that the Duke of Chablais, and the Princeſs Mary, their Majeſties ſecond Son and Daughter, have both been extremely ill of Fevers, but that their Highneſſes were much better, and thought to be out of Danger.

Vienna, Oct. 24. On Wedneſday laſt, the Count de Hautefort, Ambaſſador from France, had his firſt private Audience of her Imperial Majeſty, and the Archduke Joſeph; and on Friday he was introduced to all the young Imperial Family. The Regiment of Diemar, Cuiraſſiers, raſſiers, in Garriſon in this City, is ordered to march into Hungary, and is to be replaced by the Regiment of Birkenfeld, which is expected here by the 30th Inſtant. The Departure of Count Eſterhaſi, in Quality of Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties to the Court of Spain, is fixed for the 4th of next Month.

Paris, Oct. 30. On the 24th Inſtant, the Dauphin took his Seat, for the firſt Time, in the Council of Diſpatches. A few Days ago died the young Princeſs, of whom the Dauphineſs was delivered the 26th of Auguſt laſt; and her Corps has ſince been depoſited in the Tomb of the Royal Family in the Abby of St. Denis.

Berlin, Oct. 31. On Wedneſday laſt the King arrived here from Potzdam, when the Baron de Roſencrantz, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Denmark, had his Audience of Leave, at which he was preſented with a Diamond Ring of great Value; and the Baron de Thienen, who ſucceeds him, had his firſt private Audience, and delivered his Credential Letters to his Majeſty; after which the King dined with the Queen Mother, who then appeared in publick for the firſt Time ſince her late Illneſs; and on Friday his Majeſty returned to Potzdam. The King having given his Conſent to the Marriage of the Chevalier Keith, Nephew to the Field Marſhal of that Name, with Mademoiſelle de Suhm, the ſame will be celebrated in a ſhort Time. The Count de Daneſchiold, Captain General of the Naval Forces of the King of Denmark, arrived here on Thurſday laſt from Wiſbaden, accompanied by the Vice-Admiral his Brother. The next Day they went to Potzdam, and had the Honour of being preſented to his Majeſty, and were graciouſly received; and having taken Leave of the King, the two Queens, and the reſt of the Royal Family, ſet out on Sunday Morning for Copenhagen. His Majeſty has appointed M. Heuſingen to be his Counſellor of War and Domains at Konigsberg in Pruſſia.

Hague, Nov. 6. The Detachments of Horſe and Dragoon Guards, which are to eſcort his Britannick Majeſty through the Territories of the Republick, ſet out this Day for their ſeveral Stations. The States of Holland are to aſſemble on Tueſday next, and the Summons have been already iſſued for that Purpoſe. Count Bentinck is returned to the Hague from Loo, as is likewiſe M. De Larrey. And we hear from thence, that their Royal and Serene Highneſſes continue there in perfect Health. M. Domis has taken the uſual Oaths before the Council of State, in Quality of Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Du Verge.

London, October 29.

Yeſterday Francis Cokayne, Eſq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year enſuing, was ſworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Enſigns of Mayoralty were ſurrendered to him in the accuſtomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-ſide, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending, and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the ſeveral Companies in their reſpective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Weſtminſter; and having walked round the Hall, and ſolemnly ſaluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Fryers, and from thence in Coaches with the uſual Solemnity to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were preſent the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction.

Whitehall, October 23, 1750.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, That on Saturday the 29th of September laſt, in the Night, ſome malicious Perſon or Perſons, ſtabbed and killed, in a Paſture near the Town Street of Stebbing, near Dunmow in Eſſex, two Geldings of the Value of 30 l. the Property of David Starn, a Farmer at Stebbing aforeſaid; Their Excellencies for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in ſtabbing and killing the ſaid two Geldings, are pleaſed to promiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon to any of them who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
